Long describes his trip to Canada. Is pessimistic about defeating the Government in the coming British elections. Long is pleased that in South Africa the education policy must develop away from Hertzog's policy, due to opposition by the teachers. Long regrets that Chaplin and his followers still distrust Botha. This distrust can only drive Botha towards the narrow anti-Imperialist section of his followers. The British party in South Africa cannot hope to gain a majority due to the success of the Labour Party. They should therefore support the best elements in Botha's party. In the case of the naval contribution for example, Chaplin and his followers should support Botha.

1912-18 1 Nov Letter. Ts. 1p Louis Botha to C.P. Crewe.

It is sufficient if Botha can supply a certain number of ships, to be part of the Imperial Navy, but to be stationed in South African waters. Hertzog seems to have mismanaged the agricultural question. Long regrets that Chaplin underestimates the Labour Party in South Africa. In Britain, parliamentary matters are stagnating.

1912-21 16 Dec Letter. Hs. 4p Walter Long Co C.P. Crewe.

Botha has resigned to reconstitute his own government. Long thinks a coalition at this juncture would be a good thing, consisting of Botha and Smartt's parties. Long hopes that Hertzog will not gain power. Long regrets the difficulties created by Duncan and Farrar and cannot understand why an objection is raised to importing mine labour from outside, if the wages are too low for white labour. Long's party is in great difficulties over the Declaration made at the Albert Hall by Lansdowne and Bonar Law.

Urges Crewe to appeal for party unity.

Feb 13 14 Jan Letter. Is. 8p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Personal news. Long considers it evident that Hertzog means to fight Botha, with the support of the "irreconcilable Dutch". Long gathers that Merriman's attitude is doubtful and may develop hopes for a union of the Moderate and Imperialist forces in South Africa, faithful to Imperialist principles. Long considers it reasonable for South Africa; in making a contribution to the British navy, to stipulate that these ships shall, if possible, form a South African squadron. In Britain Long's party has been through a crisis following Lansdowne and Sonar Law's declarations. Food taxes have been repudiated.

Defence is satisfactory, apart from some grumbles from the Free State. The Military School a great success.

1913-14a Undated. Minute of South African Cabinet. Ts. 1p Minute of South African Cabinet Ministers to Governor?General.

Appointments under the South African Defence Act, 1912.

1913-15 25 Nov Letter. Ts. 5p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

There is a serious split in the South African Party. Botha will have to look for support to the Unionist Party. Long hopes that the British party will not support progressive Imperialists in South Africa. Botha might lose a lot of support among Transvaal voters. The Indian question will test the statesmanship of Botha and Smuts. In Britain there is trouble regarding Ulster's demand for exclusion from the Home Rule Bill and also over government expenditure on National defence. There is also labour unrest, the Insurance Act is working badly. However, there is no strong leader to lead the Opposition party and the results of an election would probably be a very small majority either way.

1913-16 31 Dec Letter. Ts. 3p Walter Long co C.P. Crewe.

In South Africa, the Indian demand is impossible to tolerate and the Indians must be contented with modifications of their treatment. Botha's majority has been weakened by secessions and death and he will have to turn to the Unionist for support. The Labour Party is not likely to become a great force in South Africa, as it is in Britain. There are rumours in Britain that Asquith will become a peer and Gray, leader in the Lower House.

These rumours unfounded.

Jan 14 2 Jan Letter. Ts. 3p Lord Selborne to C.P. Crewe.

Estimates that it will be an anxious year for South Africa. Hertzog will not leave the South African Party, even though he disagrees with Botha. The real seriousness of the Indian question in South Africa is its effect in India itself

Legitimate grievances of the Indians in South Africa should be removed. The question has not been settled before this, because Gandhi and Smuts attempt to out-manoeuvre each other. In Britain, the Government is in a panic over Ulster.

Feb 14 5 Feb Letter. Ts. 4p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

The Botha Hertzog split is final as is shown by Hertzog's attitude over the Deportation Act. In the next election, Botha will be dependent upon Unionists and Independents for his working majority. This would enable Crewe's party to state their own terms to Botha and result in a government of the "best man". Long is uncertain as to whether there is serious trouble in India. In Britain, there is trouble over Home Rule as Ulster Protestants refuse to recognize the Parliament in Dublin.

Mar 14 I Apr Letter. Ts. 2p Lord Selborne to C.P. Crewe.

Selborne doubts that the public in South Africa approved of the deportations. The provincial elections on the Rand and in Cape Colony showed that many British voted Labour to mark their disapproval of the government and the official opposition. Selborne is further disturbed by news that Botha was re-opening negotiations with Hertzog. This means that the Unionist party is split over labour troubles and the deportations, while the Boers are re-united over the same events.

Apr 14 23 Apr Letter. Ts. 2p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

In Britain there is a feeling that Botha acted wisely to restore order, but that deportation without trial is unjustifiable and unconstitutional. Long believes that Crewe is correct in estimating that Botha will eventually be forced to ally with the Unionist Party.

May 14 27 Apr Letter. Ms. 4p C.P. Crewe to Mrs Crewe.

Personal.

Jun 14 10 Jun Letter. Ts. Sp Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

In Britain, the passing of the Amending Bill will lead to trouble in Ulster. Long hopes it will cause the downfall of the government. Long can understand Crewe's approval of the deportations, even though these were unconstitutional, as Civil War was the alternative. Long condemns the Labour Party as being purely destructive and agrees that if white workmen rebel they should be replaced by "black labour".

Long agrees that Britain has erred in accepting "undesirables from all countries" as refugees. Condemns the anarchists and suffragettes and their method of hunger strikes to gain their own ends.

Jul 14 14 Jul Letter. Ms. 4p Rudyard Kipling to C.P. Crewe.

Sep 14 31 Jul Letter. Ms. 4p J.C. Smuts to C.P. Crewe.

The position in Ireland is insoluble. European affairs also grave. Austria is repeating her Bosnia tactics of 1901 but Russia and Britain are not willing to allow this and Britain will support France as an ally. Smuts hopes that Germany will induce Austria to stop in time. There is a possibility that a full time adjutant will be appointed for the Kaffrarian and Eastern Rifles instead of two as at present.

Recruitment of troops proceeding in Britain. Germany appears to have been checked at present.

Dec 14 21 Oct Letter. Ts. 2p Lord Milner to C.P. Crewe.

Botha will lose the support of the extreme Boers by entering the war. By the end of the war, Botha will have gained the support of the British elements, moderate Boers and older Unionists. The war in German South West will be strenuous for South Africa. Even if Germany is defeated, there will be no permanent peace. Germany will not attempt war for one generation and might replace the Kaiser and Junkers with a different form of government.

1914-13 12 Oct Letter. Ts. 3p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Long expresses satisfaction at the failure of the movement to oppose Botha and is confident in the leadership qualities of Botha. 1914-16 25 Nov Letter. Ms. 4p J.C. Smuts to C.P. Crewe.

Reply to Crewe's request for an advisory committee. Smuts would prefer not to complicate the administrative machinery with an extra committee but rather to strengthen the existing structure. Government Inspectors have been appointed and also an extra assistant to the Quarter Master General.

The administrative machine will also be improved. British Government to be asked for advice and information.

1914-17 3 Dec Letter. Ts. 2p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Botha's task has been increased by the rebellion and action of the Orange Free State but Botha will have enough support to win. As a result of the action of the Union Government and the Great War, Rhodesia may come into the Union. Long is pleased that Crewe is nearing the end of his labours and is going home.

Rebellion in Transvaal is crushed and De Wet taken prisoner. Farrar complains about the Quarter Master General's Department. Items 1915

Jan 15 4 Jan Telegram. Ms. 1p J.C. Smuts to C.P. Crewe.

Railway construction is being given priority in South West Africa. Smuts is seeking the help of the financial experts. Only Smartt is helpful. Smuts finds the others too narrow in their demands for economy and retrenchment. He is anxious to pursue the conquest of South West Africa and considers this a priority over financial questions.

Jun 15 27 Jan Letter. Ts. lop Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Long is concerned that the British in South Africa are unable co find employment and cites the case of Mr. Perkins. From Crewe's account, Long realises that Botha has had to employ an "undue number of detachments" in proportion to the population to secure the support of his own people. Long feels that the campaign in German South West Africa will be a difficult one, although he is confident that the Germans will be defeated. Long hopes that if the campaign in South West Africa is successful, Rhodesia will enter the Union. Long praises Beatty's fight in the North Sea and gives news from France. He condemns the attitude of neutrality shown by the Q.S.A. who continues to supply products indirectly co Germany through Italy. Personal news.

Dec 15 6 Apr Letter. Ms. 8p Lord Milner to C.P. Crewe.

Milner agrees that Botha has done wonders and deserves every support. Botha alone can maintain order in South Africa. At the same time Milner can understand that Crewe is averse to supporting any Boer government whatsoever, because South Africa will never be a satisfactory member of the Empire. Milner is disillusioned with politics. He feels that when the war is over, the old party struggles will resume in British politics. Germany will be defeated in the war but there will be no permanent peace. The British government's political conduct of the war has been utterly feeble. At the same time, Milner admires the spirit of the British fighting forces.

1915-13 9 Apr Letter. Ts. 2p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

1916-18 13 Aug Letter. Ms. 3p C.P. Crewe to W.H. Fuller.

Crewe is suffering from an attack of malaria. Confident the Germans will be defeated by the end of October as the Askaris are deserting them. Crewe is counting on the support of the Wanyamivesi tribe against the Germans. Crewe still struggling with transport and supply problems.

1916-19 27 Aug Letter. Ta. 3p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Compliments Crewe on his campaign successes. The British government experienced a difficult parliamentary session. The news from France quite good. Roumania is entering the war. The Greek king will be in an unfavourable position for his lack of support in the war. Is optimistic about the outcome of the war.

Describes the transport of sick and wounded troops aboard the Hospital ship "Ebani".

1916-22 3 Oct Letter. Ts. 3p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Lukin is sending Crewe a sketch map to illustrate the account of the 'Push' on the Somme.

1916-26 1 Dec Letter. Ms. 6p T. Smartt to C.P. Crewe.

The question of the overseas pay will eventually be settled but it will still be a disgraceful matter. Still nothing can be gained by the hotheads in Natal and Johannesburg who denounce Botha. The response to volunteering for overseas service has been poor. Smartt suggests that Coloureds and Zulus be enrolled and asks Crewe's advice in this regard Smartt has spoken to Botha and Botha's speech at Volksrust was different in tone.

1916-27 13 Dec Letter. Ms. 1p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Thanks Crewe for his message.

1916-28 15 Dec Letter. Ms. 4p T. Smartt to C.P. Crewe.

Smartt had a meeting on the Rand on the 12th December and made the position clear as regards overseas pay. Hopes to secure a solution by the time Parliament meets. Personal news.

1916-29 23 Dec Letter. Ms. 8p T. Smartt to C.P. Crewe.

Smartt considers that Crewe criticised the Defence Department severely but justifiably at East London. The Defence Department under Smuts is a favourite object of attack by the Nationalists and it is best to improve it by showing up its deficiencies. Smartt again condemns the question of unsatisfactory overseas pay but did not force Bocha's resignation over it, because the Unionist party is not strong enough to form a government. Smartt agrees that food supplies, especially wheat and flour should be controlled and a war profits tax imposed. Smartt is against Britain making up the difference in the army pay and has informed Botha of his views. Smartt considers it was the pressure of the Unionist party which led to a South Africa Brigade being sent to Europe. The Brigade is in need of reinforcements but Smartt will not vote against Botha for fear of Nationalists. The Transvaal congress a great success.

1916-29a 23 Dec Letter. Ma. 14p W. Merriman to C.P. Crewe.

Agrees that the political situation in South Africa is serious. Sympathises with Botha's vain effort to reconcile hostile factions. Regards the source of deficiencies in defence as the appointment of "political officers" and the lack of army discipline. Advises Crewe to be cautious in advocating reform. A Select Committee of Enquiry should be proposed. A semi-permanent force should be established with a cadre of officers for emergencies. Advises Crewe not to be too depressed by his East African experiences but to remember the gallantry of South African troops fighting in the Imperial army. Discusses the problem of the British Empire and how Britain can best keep her dominions intact.

1916-30 28 Dec Letter. Ms. 3p Lord Buxton to C.P. Crewe.

Personal letter. Agrees with Crewe in criticising the Defence Department.

Items 1917

Jan 17 6 Jan Letter. Ts. 4p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Agrees that Smuts has done very well. It is possible Smuts might now attend the Conference and leave the campaign to others. Acknowledges Crewe's work for the Empire, hopes that affairs in South Africa will improve and that Botha's government, supported by the Unionist party, will defeat the Hertzog faction. In Britain the Coalition Government under Asquith was unpopular and Lloyd George was the only possible alternative. Long would have preferred to become a private member but Lloyd George and Bonar Law prevailed on him to accept government office.

Long is satisfied with Lloyd George.

Feb 17 16 Jan Letter. Ts. 3p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Long considers Crewe's view of the South African situation to be very pessimistic. Long will consider Crewe's suggestions and would like Crewe to put them to the Governor? General. Long is under the impression that Botha's supporters are dissatisfied with him and he has to be careful not to strengthen Hertzog's party. Long hopes Crewe will write to him frankly and will treat the matter as confidential. Long promises to further the interests of Captain Swan, whom Crewe has befriended.

Mar 17 26 Jan Letter. Ms. 4p F.S. Dawson to C.P. Crewe.

Is pleased that recruits are more numerous. At the moment, the South African Brigade is too weak to carry on and the British government refuses to strengthen it with United Kingdom recruits. Dawson is anxious for the arrival of the Potchefstroom recruits. The South African Brigade, if put behind the line, through insufficient numbers, will have to mend roads and dig trenches.

Apr 17 30 Jan Letter. Ms. 4p H.T. Lukin to C.P. Crewe.

Lukin has been promoted to the Command of a Division. Lukin hopes that Crewe's East London speech will induce suitable recruits for the Brigade and not under-age youths. The South African Brigade is 1 000 short and wastage amounts to three per month. Lukin discusses various ways of bringing the Brigade up to strength.

Lukin is pleased that the men are to receive Union pay but hopes this will be given either on leave in England or on discharge to avoid drunkenness in the regiment. The men don't resent their low pay and are bearing up well under winter hardships.

May 17 15 Feb Letter. Ms. 2p J.C. Smuts to C.P. Crewe.

Smuts is leaving on the "Donvegan" for the overseas conference. He wishes Crewe a short and useful session and thinks there will be considerable talk on the points Crewe has raised about overseas pay and treatment. Smuts is not hopeful of the Conference forcing the Germans to an easy peace.

Jun 17 7 Mar Letter. Ts. 9p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Long has shown Crewe's letter outlining South African events, to Selborne and Jameson, who agreed with the description.

Long realises Botha's political difficulties and his inability to break away from his own party. However, Botha has promoted imperial loyalty as far as he could among his own people. Botha's South African and German East Africa campaigns were successful. Long is pleased that Smuts and not Botha is attending the Conference as Smuts is more of a politician. Botha, too, must handle the critical condition in South Africa. Hughes, of Australia, is unable to attend the Conference. In Britain, the government under Lloyd George, is strong. New departments have been created under Controllers some of whom are not M.P's. The question of Home Rule has again been raised in Parliament. Long is off to France, the following day, to visit the various Colonial Corps. Imports have been cut down owing to the submarine menace.

Jul 17 19 Mar Letter. Ts. 3p Lord Milner to C.P. Crewe.

Has spoken to Smuts who was very reasonable regarding South Africa's domestic situation. Milner feels that this is the weakest part of the British Empire, especially because the war drew off so many loyal British South Africans. Milner hopes that British prestige will be so increased by the end of the war, that the Boers will not break off from the Empire. The only satisfactory solution in South Africa would have been to increase the number of British emigrants, but the 1906 Radical victory in Britain spoiled this chance. Milner fears that the Russian revolution will be a decisive factor in the peace settlement.

Aug 17 20 Mar Letter. Ts. 2p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Acknowledges Crewe's condolences on the loss of his son. Thanks Crewe for his account of the situation in South Africa. Has met Smuts and is much impressed by him. Thinks it was foolish of the opponents to fight the Cresswell election.

Sep 17 12 Apr Descriptive account. Ts. 2p H. Lukin to C.P. Crewe.

Account of an attack by the 9th Division on the Roux? Gavrelle Road Chemical Works and Roux on the 12th April.

Oct 17 21 Apr Letter. Ts. 1p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Is impressed with Smuts' diplomacy and finds him more optimistic than Crewe about South Africa's political position. Has heard from General Allenby about the South African Brigade's bravery and hopes this commendation will encourage more recruits.

Nov 17 22 Apr Letter. Ms. 4p F.S. Dawson to C.P. Crewe.

The South African Brigade has been so reduced as to be useless for fighting purposes and will probably be withdrawn from the front line. Describes a successful battle operation carried out on 9 April. On the 12th, however, the Brigade suffered heavy casualties due to machine gun fire. Dawson agrees with Crewe that the Union government has no consideration for the Brigade in Europe, because it declined to go to German East Africa.

Dec 17 7 May Letter. Is. 3p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Considers that matters are improving, despite Crewe's depressing accounts. Believes that the difficulty in South Africa will be solved by a policy of coalition of all parties, broad Imperialism and domestic progress. Smuts has made a good impression in Britain. The Imperial War Cabinets and Imperial War Conferences have gone off well.

1917-13 31 May Letter. Ta. 4p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

The Germans are concentrating on submarine attack but the success of such attacks is decreasing. Is confident in the Russian situation improving. Satisfied with the results of the Imperial Conference. The Reform Bill has had a wonderful reception in Parliament and Long is very enthusiastic about its measures.

1917-14 23 Jun Letter. Ms. 10p H.T. Lukin to C.P. Crewe.

Description of Battle of Arras on 9th April and further battles on 11th and 12th April and 26th and 27th April.

The Brigade is in danger of being reduced to two Battalions unless reinforcements of new recruits can be provided. Gives news of his wife's and his own ill?health. Considers that the Germans are still an effective fighting force and the war will be long and bloody. Discusses military tactics used in trench warfare and expresses opinions on the effectiveness of French and American help. Comments on items of information regarding the Defence Department, which have been mentioned in Crewe's letter.

1917-15 1 Jul Letter. Ms. 4p F. Heal to C.P. Crewe.

Is sending Crewe a list of all honours and decorations earned by the South African Brigade up to 3rd June which is also being sent to Mayors of Kimberley, Cape Town and Port Elizabeth. The Brigade is waiting for more recruits.

The officers have been very satisfactory. The junior officers should be retained for the Active Citizen Force after the war and should be officers in the Active Citizen Force.

1917-16 Undated Letter. Ms. 4p F.J. Sutton to C.P. Crewe.

Personal.

1917-17 4 Jul Letter. Ts. 3p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Long is interested in Crewe's comments about East and Central Africa. Long appreciates, more than Crewe, the difficulties of Botha's position with Hertzog constantly attacking him. Long realises that Crewe is correct in desiring emigration from Britain, but emigration to South Africa demands capital. Long disagrees that Smuts' speeches are anything but diplomatic. Long realised that Crewe would disapprove of Van Deventer's appointment in East Africa, but the War Office controls these matters.

Long wishes South African affairs could be improved.

1917-18 26 Jul Letter. Ts. 1p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Letter of introduction regarding Capt. Ronald F.R. McNeill.

1917-19 10 Jul Letter. Ms. 4p F.S. Dawson to C.P. Crewe.

Brigade still under strength. After the next battle, the Brigade will be reduced to 2 Battalions. A report is enclosed regarding the death of Murray. Dawson requests that after the war, the four regiments of the Brigade should be perpetuated, with the battalion Head Quarters in the capitals and companies in certain towns. In any case, some sort of association will be formed to keep records of the brigade and assist its members. Crewe's assistance sought in the above matters.

1917-20 30 Jul Letter. Ts. 2p T.A. Smartt to C.P. Crewe.

It has been decided not to hold a Party Congress as the Unionist Party desires to support General Botha's government to successfully conclude the war.

1917-21 8 Aug Letter. Ms. 2p H.T. Lukin to C.P. Crewe.

Hopes that Crewe's health will improve. Gives Crewe information regarding German battle tactics. Personal news.

1917-23 23 Aug Letter. Ts. 2p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

The campaign in German East Africa is not over according to Hoskins. The political situation in South Africa is difficult but this difficulty is common to all countries at that period.

1917-24 28 Aug Letter. Ms. 2p Rudyard Kipling to C.P. Crewe.

Has no information concerning Churchill and Smuts. The Germans seem to be losing the war. The U.S.A. has entered the war. The Canadians are fighting well. Home politics are neglected in the public mind, and all interest is in the war. The war has lasted much longer than either Britain or Germany anticipated.

1917-25 31 Aug Letter. Ms. 2p D'Eyrcourt C. Chamberlain to C.P. Crewe.

Personal.

1917-26 31 Aug Letter. Ms. 2p F.S. Dawson to C.P. Crewe.

1917-27 4 Sept Letter. Ta. 4p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

East African campaign dragging on slowly. Medical arrangements unsatisfactory. Long thanks Crewe for Chappell's letter and admits there is cause for anxiety which Chappell and Crewe betray. Affairs in France satisfactory.

Russian affairs causing anxiety. The Russian army undisciplined. The U Boat campaign has inflicted damage during past fortnight on Britain. U.S.A. intervention might assist the allies.

1917-29a 4 Oct Letter. Ms. 3p C.P. Crewe to W.H. Fuller.

Letter written from Ndula, near Tabora. The South East and Eastern portions of the Belgian colony have been cleared of German troops. In Europe the news for the allies is likewise good. Beyond preserving order in the occupied territories, there is little for Crewe to do.

1917-30 11 Oct Letter. Ts. 4p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Is regretful about the political condition of South Africa. Is fearful of consequences if Botha's health breaks down. Some of Smuts' speeches in England have annoyed British party in South Africa, but Smuts has tried to be helpful and diplomatic. Long will try to further the cause of emigration to South Africa but fears emigrants prefer Canada and Australia. The war is satisfactory on all Fronts. The air raids have been disagreeable but have not affected the spirit of the British people. Long is determined that Germany should lose her colonies at the end of the war.

1917-30a 12 Oct Telegram (copy). Ts. 1p General Sir Hubert Gough to 9th Army.

Commends the 9th Division for its success of September 20th and gallantry in the severe fighting of October 12th.

1917-33 17 Nov Letter. Is. 2p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

Acknowledges Crewe's letter of condolence on the death of his son.

1917-36 23 Nov Letter. Ms. 4p H.T. Lukin to C.P. Crewe.

Points out the difficulties of Crewe's proposal to publish in 1910 a Christmas number of the East London Despatch devoted to the work of South Africans in France. Very few press correspondents or photographers are allowed into the operations sector. Crewe's application should be made through the South African Government. The record of the Brigade is being written by John Buchan. Describes battle operations and difficulties experienced in October.

1917-37 24 Nov Letter. Ta. 1p Lord Buxton to C.P. Crewe.

Has drawn up a letter for circulation to the press to clarify the fact that separate funds should not be started for assistance to disabled men. The Governor-General's fund is for this particular use.

1917-38 28 Nov Letter (copy). Ts. 4p C.P. Crewe to T.S. Smartt.

Crewe dissatisfied with Smartt's leadership of Unionist party. Smartt has alienated George Blaine, Van der Riet, King, and neglected party organisation. Smartt panders to Jagger, Cape Town and Johannesburg sections and neglects farming and mercantile interests. Jagger favours post-war trade with Germany. Crewe advises Smartt to keep Jagger and Duncan in check and also to visit branches and write to them. If organisation is neglected, the Unionist Party will disintegrate.

1917-39 1 Dec Letter. Ms. 2p E.H. Walton to C.P. Crewe.

Walton hopes that Crewe's letter to Smartt will do Smartt good. Smartt has no organisational gifts but he cannot be replaced until after the war. Walton agrees that Jagger's views regarding German trade are a danger to the Party, but Jagger, financially, has the whip hand over Smartt.

1917-40 7 Dec Letter. Ms. 12p T.S. Smartt to C.P. Crewe.

Smartt endeavours to refute the accusations made by Crewe in his letter of 28th November. Smartt insists he is adhering to Unionist policy of supporting Botha to end war.

Smartt expresses surprise that in certain correspondence with Botha, Crewe on behalf of the Unionist Party at East London, proposed coalition and only showed the correspondence to Smartt six or seven weeks later. Smartt denies he is guided solely by Jagger and Duncan and insists he is willing to be guided by the Party as a whole. Smartt insists he will abide by party policy until a Party Congress can be held.

Smartt regrets Blaine's defection, but blames Crewe partly, as a leader article in East London Dispatch inflamed public opinion. He hopes Blaine will relent. Smartt is unable to attend to party organisation through lack of funds and asks Crewe to raise subscriptions for Party members. Smartt has neglected his farming interests to devote himself to the party.

1917-41 8 Dec Letter. Ms. 4p Lord Crewe to C.P. Crewe.

> Discusses the war situation and is pessimistic about a prospect of peace in Europe. The British Government is unpopular and the press has unbridled power. Reply to Smartt's letter of 7th December. Crewe justifies his correspondence with Botha, regarding coalition.

Crewe is quite unwilling to accept Blaine back into the Party, but is anxious to retain Blaine's constituency for the Unionist Party. Crewe justifies his leader-article in the East London Dispatch. Crewe still maintains that Smartt has neglected Party organisation.

1917-43 21 Dec Letter. Ts. 2p Walter Long to C.P. Crewe.

However, the Nationalist election cry for secession has been defeated and the Nationalists will be quiet for some time.

In Rhodesia, a section of the population feels that the charter should continue for a year or two until events in the Union become clearer. The Company, however, has nothing to gain from continuing unless the Cave award is properly settled. In Northern Rhodesia, Chaplin obtained all he wanted from the Advisory Council. Northern Rhodesia realises that the Company cannot continue its support, and efforts at self-help, especially as regards the railway to the South, must be made. Preparations going ahead to receive the Prince and Princess.

1921-28 3 Nov Letter. Ms. 8p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

Chaplin has heard that Churchill is willing for Smuts to receive a Rhodesian delegation to discuss Union with South Africa. Chaplin asks Crewe's opinion of affairs in Johannesburg. The price of gold has dropped and the mine owners would like gradual removal of the colour bar. Chaplin is puzzled by the Union government's action in treating all natives north of Latitude 22° as prohibited immigrants. In England and elsewhere the stock exchange in a bad state. There is no market for food produced.

Lukin recounts local news and complains about the apathy of the public regarding the South African navy which will be established before the end of the year.

1921-30 14 Nov Letter. Ts. 2/p Lionel Phillips to C.P. Crewe.

Much labour restlessness, as the leaders resent the measures necessary to save the low grade mines. Smuts states that more whites will be employed, no reductions in pay and colour bar to be retained. Phillips maintains that the native miners are allowed no promotion even after eight to ten years labour and this leads to grievances on their part. Phillips believes that this policy will change. Whether the change comes by consent of the working classes or is preceded by upheaval depends on whether the government takes a firm line or not. So far, Smuts has shirked the real issue. Phillips approves the idea of recruiting settlers in India, and Col. Gordon would have been admirable in this respect. Phillips will further the movement when he reaches England.

1921-31 23 Nov Letter. Ms. 7p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

Chaplin expects to head a delegation to Smuts in January or February regarding Union. Nothing can be done until Coghlan and his delegation return from England. Rhodesia has been put off the idea of Union by Smuts' speeches about Dominion status and the Transvaal Provincial Council's actions. Rhodesians pleased by the Union tobacco tax.

Rhodesia, like South Africa, has a tax on merchant profits which has proved unpopular, but which cannot be altered until the Union alters its law. Chaplin does not approve of the labour situation in Johannesburg, where neither white nor native workers will get higher wages, but the natives will be expected to work more. Chaplin hopes the railway management in Rhodesia will effect a settlement.

Chaplin is puzzled by the withdrawal of the special recognition of the Union railway man's organisation of railway wages.

1921-32 28 Nov Letter. Ts. 4p Lionel Phillips to C.P. Crewe.

1921-34 3 Dec Letter. Ms. 12p Thomas Smartt to C.P. Crewe.

Smartt thinks that Boshoff's attitude must have some reasonable explanation. Smartt considers that prospective settlers to South Africa need not have £1 500 as proposed.

It would be better to have experienced young farmers with £600, prepared to work industriously. The 1820 Committee in London is supposed to be working in harmony with the High Commissioner's office. Smartt fears the London Publicity Office is giving too favourable a picture of South African prospects. Smartt will write to Walton on that subject. Smartt has learned from two California citrus experts attached to the Department of Agriculture, of the possibilities of this type of farming, and is anxious that any interested settlers should be likewise instructed.

1921-35 8 Dec Letter. Ms. 5p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

Crown Mines strike settled. Price of gold has fallen. The Union government will have to increase taxation next year and this spoils chances for Rhodesian entry into Union. The Coghlan deputation in London is trying to decrease the amount that the Company can claim from the Crown when the Crown cakes over public works and administration. Responsible government will be started with the Crown lands "in pawn" and no control over mines, railways or general development - a foolish policy. Chaplin hopes for the failure of the responsible government deputation.

1921-36 8 Dec Letter. Ms. J.C. Smuts to C.P. Crewe.

Smuts expects a difficult parliamentary session due to troublesome times. He hopes the Irish business is finally settled. His insistence on Dominion representation at Washington has been heeded and Balfour is to represent South Africa. Smuts finds the Spilhaus agitation regrettable and will not give way on Spilhaus' appointment.

Jan 22 6 Jan Letter. Ms. 4p E.H. Walton to C.P. Crewe.

Discusses the Irish trouble. Lloyd George arranging an election before he commences a retrenchment scheme. The Rhodesian delegates are on their way back. Walton thinks that Coghlan's party will insist on responsible government even if it leads to financial disaster. Walton believes, however, that if Smuts made them reasonable proposals, they might come into Union. Smuts could pay in bonds at pre-war rates of interest. Walton discusses the economic position of wool, mohair and diamonds.

Feb 22 18 Jan Letter. Ms. 10/p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

Smuts has postponed the Chaplin delegation to end of March. The draft responsible government constitution to be published. Churchill has reduced the amount payable to the Company and is lending this reduced amount to the new Rhodesian government. Chaplin feels the Company has been unfairly treated. The new Rhodesian government will not be able to make ends meet financially. Coghlan is opposing the Chaplin delegation which is to see Smuts in March. Chaplin hopes the strike on the Rand will be ended.

Mar 22 28 Jan Letter. Ms. 9p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

Johannesburg without electric power due to strikes. It appears that the Chamber of Mines has weakened considerably in its demands on behalf of the workers. Coghlan's party has adopted a resolution approving of the draft letters patent, but Chaplin feels that the public have little enthusiasm for responsible government because of financial implications. Coghlan's party will probably not participate in the delegation to see Smuts. Chaplin fears that Coghlan's party, if given responsible government will not repay the loan given to them by the Colonial Office to pay off the Company.

Apr 22 11 Feb Letter. Ts. 2p E. Chappell to C.P. Crewe.

Chappell approves Crewe's opposition to the Malcolmess Memorial scheme. The strike on the Rand is proving troublesome. Trade is being affected in Cape Town, Port Elizabeth, East London and Durban. Chappell has written to Crewe's son.

May 22 19 Feb Letter. Ms. 7½p Florence Phillips to C.P. Crewe.

Letter enclosing a copy of the burial certificate of Capt. Frederick Crewe.

Jul 22 21 Feb Letter. Ms. 7p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

Discusses the effects of the strike. The Rhodesian delegation will meet Smuts on 3rd April. Chaplin is not hopeful that Union will be accepted in Rhodesia. One section of public opinion favours continuation of Company rule until the financial position is better, but this section is overruled by the conflicting demands of the parties favouring Union and responsible government respectively.

Aug 22 9 Mar Letter. Ms. 4p E.H. Walton to C.P. Crewe.

Walton worried about the consequences of the strike and thinks the Government should have intervened sooner. Regarding settlers, Walton has been instructed to send them to Crewe's committee and is warning them not to buy land before leaving England from various companies in England. Walton fears that Spilhaus will try to divert orders to Germany. Walton discusses the British ministry. Walton will represent South Africa at the German Congress.

Sep 22 12 Mar Letter. Ms. 4p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

Chaplin's delegation is leaving for Cape Town on 13th March. The strike is under control and Chaplin hopes that Smuts will deal sternly with the ringleaders. The strike will have serious economic results and will prejudice the chances of Rhodesia entering Union. Chaplin feels that responsible government seems certain. Chaplin congratulates Crewe on the success of the settler movement and feels that prospective settlers will be recruited from civil servants in India.

Oct 22 13 Mar Letter. Ms. 1p Rev. H.H. Flynne to Mr Hamilton.

Letter in connection with the grave of Capt. Crewe.

Nov 22 19 Mar Letter. Ms. 6p T.H. Smartt to C.P. Crewe.

Smartt agrees that the source of arms supply to the revolutionaries on the Rand should be traced. He feels the police performed splendidly. The farming population were misled at first by the fact that many of the mine workers were Afrikaners. When the Burgers realised they were against "red revolution", they supported the government call to law and order. In the interest of future peace, an example must be made of the ringleaders.

Dec 22 26 Mar Letter. Ms. 4p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

Letter written from Kalk Bay during the course of the Conference with Smuts. Chaplin expects the Conference to end by 20th April. Chaplin expects the responsible government party to triumph in Rhodesia. The Nationalists and Labourites in South Africa are obstructing the efforts at Union with Rhodesia. The events on the Rand have strengthened Smuts' position but Buxton's budget will not be popular with the electorate. There is pessimism about trade revival and diamond price.

1922-13 27 Mar Letter. Ms. 4p J.C. Smuts to C.P. Crewe.

A profound spirit of depression exists on the Rand. In Parliament there is great animosity. South Africa is going through a difficult period of its history.

Lukin is pleased that the Crewes are arriving in May. Personal news. Reports of an Area Committee meeting of the Settlers Association. The police did well on the Rand. Smuts will have difficulty getting the Indemnity

Bill through Parliament. The Chamber of Mines has increased Smuts' difficulties by their manifesto.

1922-15 11 Apr Letter. Ms. 8p H.T. Lukin to C.P. Crewe.

The settlers street collection was a failure. Smuts made a good speech at a concert given by the First Brigade Association to celebrate the Battle of Arras. The debate on the Indemnity Bill is proving tiresome. Lukin congratulates Crewe on the success of his fair. Lukin considers it unjust that dress regulations of the Union Forces give precedence to decorations won during the South African War by Republican Officers over the D.S.O.

1922-16 13 Apr Letter. Ms. 4p Lord Crewe to C.P. Crewe.

Recounts the death of Lord Crewe's son.

1922-17 16 Apr Letter. Ms. 6p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

The Rhodesian delegation leaving on 22nd or 24th April. The responsible government section is not likely to be impressed with Smuts' offer. Certain points have not been settled e.g. representation numbers in House of Assembly, and money for development. This will wait until Smuts has reached a settlement with the Company according to the Cave award.

Chaplin feels that the scheme will receive favourable support in Rhodesia. However, the responsible government section of the delegation will try to belittle the advantages of Smuts' terms. The Labour Party in Rhodesia will favour responsible government. The Referendum will possibly not be before October. If responsible government wins, they will take over in April or July. If Union wins, the Union Parliament could not take over before January 1924.

1922-18 1 May Letter. Ms. 6p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

Chaplin is preparing for Salisbury Legislative Council Session which he hopes will be finished by the end of May. He hopes that public opinion in the Referendum will be swayed towards Union when it is realised that Rhodesia is facing financial difficulties in the coming year and that assistance from South Africa will be a great help. Smuts may come up after the session but will make no electioneering speeches. A bad drought in progress, especially in Matabeleland.

1922-19 22 May Letter. Ms. 7p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

> Smuts is negotiating with the Company and will probably soon announce the terms on which Rhodesia can enter Union. The success of the Union movement depends on the manner in which the campaign is conducted. People with vested interests in Rhodesia fear responsible government. Rhodesia in for a bad financial year and business and financial affairs in the Union also unsatisfactory. The legislative session ending this week, Chaplin going to the Bulawayo Show and then to Livingstone.

1922-20 4 Jun Letter. Ms. 2p H.T. Lukin to C.P. Crewe.

The agitation against Provincial Councils will probably die down but the Cape may have to diminish expenditure. Chaplin discusses the report of the annual meeting of the Sundays River Company. Describes the Agricultural Show at Lusaka.

Comments on Newton's speech dealing with the Southern Rhodesia Union question.

1922-24 15 Jul Letter. Ms. 4p Drummond Chaplin to C.P. Crewe.

Chaplin hopes that the Sundays River settlement will improve with greater future prosperity in South Africa.

He regrets that Cresswell was elected in Durban. Smuts is coming to Salisbury in August to open the show. The feeling for Union will be apparent when the "town" votes are out.

1922-25 24 Jul Letter. Ms. 7p E.H. Walton to C.P. Crewe.

> From Genoa, Walton learned that a Russian settlement is impossible at the moment. The Irish troubles also continue.

There is a movement towards recovery in diamond trade but European position too unsettled. Lloyd George's cabinet incompetent. Churchill has bungled the Rhodesia issue.

If Rhodesia does not come into Union, the British government will probably have to pay the Cave award to the Company.

Walton has collected £15 000 for the Delville Wood Memorial.

Walton hopes that Spilhaus won't sell produce to the Germans on credit. Walton assures Crewe that Zachariah and Boshoff are sending settlers out under Crewe's scheme.

Many men from the Army and Navy would like to settle in South Africa, but have no capital.

A point just realized from Churchill's recently published telegram is that he may, if responsible government wins the referendum, hold up the issue of the letters patent until the result of the Company's petition of right is known. If responsible government takes over next year, they will be in an even worse position, with additional expenses.

Smartt is hopeful that the government will not attempt to force the Flag Bill through, owing to the storm of protest throughout the country. A letter regarding the Milner Memorial will be sent to various friends - f16 000 has been raised in London.

Sep 26 30 May Letter. Ms. 7p T. Smartt to C.P. Crewe.

Crewe's East London meeting regarding the flag question seems to have been successful. Smartt feels the Labour Party will break away from the Nationalists because of the insult to the Union Jack. The government determined to push the Bill through next session. Smartt agrees that the South African Party must keep the opposition proceedings as moderate as possible so as not to alienate their Dutch supporters. Cresswell has emerged very unfavourably from these proceedings. The South African Party rally on Friday night a great success.

Oct 26 25 Jun Letter. Ms. 4p T. Smartt to C.P. Crewe.

Thanks Crewe for his letters and articles which ably express the South African Party position. Agrees that the Nationalists have caused alarm by references to sovereign independence, interference with the civil service, Hertzog's speech at Stellenbosch and flag proposals.

Praises Crewe's thoughtful reference to J.H. Hofmeyr. Is not clear on Crewe's reference to the native vote. Agrees that the Natal section is wrong in wishing to petition the King and so alienate the "loyal Dutch". Is amused by the Labour reference to the idea of two flags instead of one.

Nov 26 29 Jun Letter. Ms. 6p J.C. Smuts to C.P. Crewe.

Thanks Crewe for his articles on government policy. Does not think Crewe's idea of a constitutional league on non-party lines is feasible. Expects that the Pact's blunder regarding the flag question will alienate the non-political moderates. Smuts planning to write a memorandum on Hertzog's Native Bills. Hopes that the motion to delete the existing natives' names from the voters rolls will not gain a two-thirds majority. Has no belief in Hertzog's solution to the native policy but believes it a wise policy to avoid Party aspect and discusses the matter impartially.

Considers the proposal of having two equal flags for South Africa a ludicrous one.

Economics are being practised in reorganization of the Scottish office. Describes the work of O'Sullivan, Hartigon and Quin in recruiting and interviewing settlers.

Smuts does not believe anything will come of the rumour concerning the ammunitions importation and asks Crewe not to mention it in the "Dispatch". Smuts feels that the blunders of the government concerning the Flag Question, Native and Asiatic Questions will lead to its downfall.

1926-18 22 Dec Letter. Ms. 3p J.C. Smuts to C.P. Crewe.

From enquiries, Smuts gathers there is nothing sinister in the recent importation of ammunition. To gain popularity for the forthcoming provincial elections, Hertzog has undergone a "Pauline Conversion".

Smartt is pleased that Crewe is satisfied with the flag settlement. Smartt doubts whether Malan's section will accept the settlement, as is shown in Malan's "extraordinary interview" and change of face in the Senate. There are troubles within the Cabinet, where friction exists between Roos and Malan. Cresswell has cut a poor figure and sided with Malan against Roos in the pre-compromise period.
