

A2190 Major T.E. Liefeldt

Scrapbook and papers, 1915-1953

The collection mainly contains a report by Major S.M. Pritchard, O.C. of Native Affairs in the Protectorate of Ovamboland in 1915, on a visit paid by him to Ovamboland to notify the chiefs of the military protectorate, obtain labour for the railways and establish the boundaries. The report is illustrated with photographs of Ovamboland including Tsumeb, Otijwarango, Namatoni, Namakunde, mission stations, scenes of surrendered Germans and Portuguese troops and of chiefs Martin and Mandume.

- 1 Report by Major S.M. Pritchard
Typescript, 36 pages and Appendices (Photos have been removed from the report and are being kept separately. See also display of photographs.)
- 2 Pages 11 and 12 from 'The Illustrated Star', 1916, with images from Major Pritchard's tour of Ovamboland
- 3 Letter from Major Pritchard to Major T.E. Liefeldt, congratulating him on his DSO, 1918
- 4 Open letter from Major T.E. Liefeldt, on his nomination as Senator for the Transvaal and Orange Free State
- 5 Letter by Major T.E. Liefeldt to the 'Cape Times' regarding Green's book "Lords of the last frontier", 1953