

75 boxes

Records relating to the Treason Trial, Regina vs. F. Adams and 152 others on a charge of High Treason, 1956-1961.

Including: Correspondence, minutes, memoranda, printed items and court records including preparatory examination, indictment, arraignment and evidence, admissions, addresses, closing arguments, judgments and documentary exhibits. The exhibits relate to organisations including African National Congress, Communist Party of South Africa, Congress of Democrats, Congress of the People, Federation of South African Women, Natal Indian Congress, South African Coloured People's Association, South African Indian Congress, South African Peace Council, Springbok Legion, Transvaal Indian Congress, and to cultural-political groups, vigilance associations and trade unions. Also included are press summaries and bulletins of the Treason Trial Defence Fund. Amongst the many accused were Chief Albert J. Luthuli, Z.K. Matthews, Nelson Mandela and Walter Sisulu.

ARCHIVISTS' NOTES

Note: This collection is not a complete set of the trial records. It does not include the complete court records but does include a full set of the preparatory examination and documentary exhibits. For a detailed analysis of the trial see the collection of KARIS, T. The Treason Trial in South Africa: A guide to the microfilm record of the trial, Hoover Institute, Stanford University, 1965.

Digitisation of records:

The 1956 Rivonia Treason Trial records were digitised and published in May 2012. Sections E (Evidence) and F (Sydney Kentridge Papers) were not digitised.

The digitisation of the 1956 Treason Trial collection was made possible by a generous grant from The Atlantic Philanthropies. (July 2009)

The digitisation of the 1956 Treason Trial Evidence (E) and The Treason Trial Defence Fund (I) papers was made possible by a generous grant from Carnegie Corporation. (Deborah Wilson, Digital Archivist, September 2012)
