I have come here to bring the good wishes from the Zulus at home in Natal and Zululand to the Xosa people of this part of the Country.

Every body knows that before the white people came to this land there were amongst the races inhabiting this Country the Xosas and the Zulus.

We came here to celebrate the memory of the Xosa prophet-Ntsikane who informed the people that white people will come one day with their good and bad virtues to disseminate and pollute the minds and the characters of our people.

Prophet

Like King Tshaka Ntsikane did prophesise about the coming of the white man. Ishaka ^{groaned} made the groans of the death when ^{in his death} he was being murdered by his own brothers; he ~~said~~ is reported as having said "Although you kill me my brother, this country will be ruled by swallows who build their houses by MUD.

Profet. Mwikane is reported as having said, "we must take the teaching of the Book and be careful about the button which has no hole."

It is many years before now that these two said these ^{words}. We have seen these things which we have been told they came from the mouth of these saints

In bringing the greetings from Zululand I want to ask South Africa as a ^{whole} whole to pray ^{to} into God to give us

The leader to lead the African Race from the position we find ourselves as a black race placed in.

Our prayers should be short-and to the point. God give us Our Leader. For many years we had had the leaders.

Each time a leader comes up comes messengers of disruption also.

We see quarrels and the rest of it the project collapses.

We must pray for a leader who will be born of a woman and be blessed by the spirit of God. Whether the leader shall be a Kosa, Zulu or Pond, Basuto Swazi or Pechama so long as he is the black man and given to us by God the ~~tot~~ whole Country will ~~to~~ accept him as our saviour.

Every body knows that we are indeed slaves in our own God given Country.

The present Government has shown it more than any other previous Government that we are feared by ~~the~~ ^{some} white people. They suffer from the guilty conscience that they took away from us ~~or~~ the right to govern ourselves. They fear that the day may come sooner when Africa shall be governed by the black man. You see a number of Colour Bar laws produced by the so called civilized Parliament. Our sessions of Parliament are daily opened by prayers. After these prayers have been said certain laws are debated and eventually placed in the statutes books

This is where I have differed with my many good friends now led by ~~the~~ Chief Lutuli of Starang. Chief Lutuli is an ^{Ex teacher} ^{in both Government and Government-aided schools.} Chief and preacher in the American Board ~~the~~ Congregational Church is an experienced leader. He visited India on behalf of the Christian Youth Organisation. He has also visited America.

In fact he is an internationalist.
In taking leave of the leadership of the Congress I hand over to a better man.

Time will show if he has really a larger following than me in the political field when the time comes.

In the time being one can appeal to his supporters to play the game.

I have accepted defeat in the best of spirit. I remain in the ranks of the Congress
