Dear Melinda

What a lovely birthday surprise to have your family all around you. I wonder if you have recovered from the shock yet? - enjoy!

I am struggling along not very far behind you (82). I no longer ramble, drive or do many of the things that contributed to my enjoyment of life, but, however I have a full if very different life-style.

Like yourself I now live in a retirement flat and have gradually become quite happy here. There is an in-built social life which has become quite satisfying of very different.

I have been introduced to 'BINGO' once a week. A group of us also play card games, dominon, scrabble etc. These are not activities needing lots of brain-power but we enjoy - that is the important aspect.

Enough of my 'prattling on'. Enjoy your family get-together party.

My very best wishes come to you with these lines.

Take care,
Kathleen.
