National Secretary I.C.U., Sir

I am made to understand that you are due in Cape Town on the 27th. I have not much to report as I feel that the time has not yet arrived when I should make a full report of the whole position in Durban. Mr Madama as I pointed out to you did not want to leave the place when he left - he had tried to create an ill feeling against me. As it was he left here on the 13th Inst. - What I could see was that he had made a fortune out of the dances. Only one dance is recorded in the books and that is the one by your handwriting. When I came here the dancing places had been closed down the owners of the places refusing permission entirely. I found that there were some negotiations between him and another coloured man which I am continuing. but the place is far out of town should make a full report of the whole position in Dublin.

Mr Mahon as I pointed out to you did not want to leave the place when he left he had tried to create an ill feeling against me. As it was he left here on the 13th Inst. What I could see was that he had made a for time out of the dances. Only one dance is recorded in the books and that is the one by your handwriting.
When I came here the dancing places had been closed down the owners of the places refusing permission entirely.
I found ~~that~~ there were some negotiations between him and another coloured man which I am counting but the place is far out of town.
