

The African National Congress desires to register its emphatic opposition to the proposal made by the Union Government that the Mandated Territory of South-West Africa should be incorporated in the Union. Congress wholeheartedly supports the Cable the President General ANC sent to Uro.

Such as <sup>officers</sup> ~~Africans~~ In Hand over thousands to a Government which is following a policy so detrimental to the interests of the non-European world be a betrayal of the cause of democracy and would undermine the faith of Africans in U.N.O. x x x

Congress strongly supports the case of the Bechuanaland Protectorate chiefs and deplures the refusal of those concerned to grant Chief Dshekedi and his advisors travelling permits to put his case to the U.N.O. in person.
