Sir/Ms

The Azanian Student Movement (AZASM) has convened, following a decision taken at a students meeting on Friday 5th October, 1984 at St Hilda's, a meeting of Black parents and students to resolve the present impasse in the townships.

The urgency of this meeting is beyond words. Your presence (and that of your organisation, i.e. if applicable) is crucial. Receive enclosed herein a pamphlet setting out in brief the issues at stake.

- Now more than ever before, your country calls on you to come out and be party to a decision that will affect you directly or otherwise. This is democracy in action!

Yours in the liberation struggle.
