My dear Girl

I am at present in Leningrad, and I dare say this will be my last letter to you before I return, as I am thinking to leave here to night, to morrow I shall reach Moscow, and in 2, or 3. days I may start for London. I came here to Leningrad on Sunday morning, my journey here is connected with my work and partly, thanks to Kazarenius, who has been extraordinary good to me all the time. I received all your letters, they were all waiting for me at the office in Moscow as I told the people there, to keep all my letters until I return.

Well, on the whole I am more than satisfied with all the experience of the past month, although there is not very much, that I did not know before. Still I am wiser on many things, and after all I saw my people, those who are left, (not many it is true) With all the faults, I love the County and my self, I would be prepared to put up with all the inconveniences, and shortages in many things, and would be prepared to stay here in Russia, although I should not like to live in Moscow, I would sooner prefer Odessa, or Leningrad. However it is of no use thinking of what I would like or not. If I am transferred to work in Rania I shall not be sorry, except that, it will be very, very hard for the children, and may be for you too, you would be missing all the comforts. Personally I love the climate, the cold & frosty weather invigorates me I feel fresh, I have not been troubled with sleeplessness since I set foot on this land, although as you know

I have spent a good many nights in trains, Somehow the Cold acts as a good tonic. Any how I feel well all the time, no pains in stomach in the mornings. So you see it suits me very well,

Well I hope you have not been missing me very much, and hope you were not sitting at home all the time. The children are quite big to take care of themselves, and if left alone, they will fight it out between themselves. I may be sent soon to work at "Marseille" France, If for a short time of course it will not be policy to break up the home and move there, but if for longer than 6 months I think we will move there, Any how this is not quite settled and we shall talk it over when I return.

I shall not write you any more after this except perhaps a card telling you when I am leaving.

Hope you are all well, & happy as I am sure you should be Kind regards to all friends Yours as ever Sam

Olga Waring.

How is it you have not written me one word since I left? are you so busy allways?
 I have nothing to say to you as you did not write.

Heaps of love x+x+x
