

N 149

(1968)

Dear Benjamin - Dec 14th

The last word I had from you was 31st May when, poor dear, you had to write to see if I'd received your letters. I couldn't know if yours still there - and how you are - and I am eager to hear. The enclosed check is to be used in any way you want
for Robert and the
enclosed note to be forwarded to him, if you can.

While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

GENESIS 8:22

I am continuing to "build"
and have come to recognize it has to be painful to do so.

May you find
joy and peace
this Christmas
and
in the year ahead

Charlotte L. Taylor

and you? Better, much better, I hope. Charlotte
