South Africa.

Dear Mr. Paton,

Thank you very much for your letter of January 25th. May we leave the matter for the moment? It so happens that Sir Andrew McFadyean, who is at present in South Africa, is hoping to have a word with you when he is in the country. Sir Andrew is one of the directors of this Company.

The time for a reprint has not yet arisen. We have in the neighbourhood of 700 copies on hand, but they are selling reasonably fast and by the middle of the year we should be considering it.

Yours sincerely,

John H. MacCallum Scott.

14th March, 1960.

Dear Mr. Scott,

I have just received a letter from Sir Andrew McFadyean. It arrived unfortunately after I had returned from Johannesburg. It does not look now as though we shall meet, so perhaps you could tell me what you think of a revised booklet.

Yours sincerely,
