Mr M Williams

Beane who is a member of this Union complains that after discharging him and paying him off ~~then~~ yesterday afternoon you gave him this imposing order him to do some heavy work for nothing. When he refused you then blocked away his belongings.

We shall be pleased if you will let him have his belongings as this action is out of order.

The very fact that you discharged him without giving him notice was out of order. Should you not settle with him, we shall report this matter to our situation with instructions to proceed against you lawfully.

Yours truly,

W. L. Champion
