OFFICE.

PAT. LEPHUNYA (APOLOGY)

CONSCRIPTION

The REC. met NUSAS delegation to get facts about one of their member on the conscription issue.

The stand taken by Mr. Brenden Barry was praised but the REC felt that a recommendation has to be made to NEC. to the effect that in future no active member of the SADF could be allowed to take active role in the UDF.

FINANCES

Financial committee reported that we do not have money to can organise a rally at this point and continue with the administration of the office.

due to financial state of the UDF the financial committee has to make some advances to the churches in order to change this state of affairs.

The festival committee has to be revived, and organise festival event in the early part of 1985.

STRUCTURE

Area committees should be asked to nominate people to serve in this committee and that executive members has to volunteer to serve in this committee in order to ensure communication with the committee.

The financial committee should meet with festival committee to draw a badget for the venture.

RALLY

Due to financial constrains area committees are asked to fundraise for their local activities to remove the financial burden from the office.

That instead of a rally, area committee be requested to organise a meeting on 16 December 1984, which will reduce the cost unlike the rally.

The office prepare a secular notifying all area committees about the meeting

CORRESPONDENCE

We received a letter ^{of} affiliation from Rotanda Civic Association and the letter was acknowldged.

GENERAL

Moss planned to visit the people in Pietersburg over the weekend.

that the workshop which was planned to take place during the GC. be postponed to January 1985.

This would give ^{the UDF} people a chance to plan and to involve ^{more} other people.
