Dear Donald,

I have received the notice of our meeting in Nairobi on December 15 - 21.

Firstly I should point out to you on behalf of our Council that the Conference of South African Member Churches of the World Council will be held in Johannesburg from December 7 - 14. Secondly, from my own point of view, our son will be receiving his medical degree on December 15, and I feel I must be there. It would be wonderful if, for the first reason, the meeting could start the 16th December, and I would hope to arrive the day after that. Please let me know as soon as you can.

Yours sincerely,
