Military Matters

2219 Ballenden's Av
W.N. Township

Dr A. B. Xuma
President general
African National Congress.

Sir,

I have to report to you as my national Father the condition on which I live. I have six minor children and mother in law. My husband is a soldier he is up North.

I receive £2.5 per month allowance and out of that I have to pay Rent £1.10 per month and Buy books for my three children that who attend school. £1 a year fall tax for my husband.

When we go for this small allowance we are kept at the native commissioner's office for a long period They say we won't get our pay because we are too noisy we are told that any how.

By so doing we have to wait untill they feel like paying us. Some of us have left babies at home and we are expected to be back quick.

I shall be pleased if you could forward this report to the proper channel.

I am not the only one who complains about these.

I am

your obedient servant
