Dear Sirs,

I act for Mrs. Winnie Mandela, who instructs me that Professor Gwen Carter of the U.S.A. sent a book to my client through your good offices, but that the said book had not been delivered to her.

Would you please advise me if you have received the book and, if so, if I may collect same on behalf of my client.

Dear Quentin,

I am going to use you as a post box for Mrs. W. Mendellson,, P.O. Box 495, Bryanston, Johannesburg if you don't mind. It seems that letters get through in both directions better this way and I am also suggesting to her that she could send letters to you for me. Unless there seems any problem about this arrangement I will be glad if we can do it this way.

I am also sending a couple of copies of the Transkei book to be handed on to her and also some duplicate South African books that I have on hand. I will be most appreciative and I know she will too if you will do this for us.

Warm good wishes and many thanks.

Cordially yours,

Lwenz

Dear Quintin,

Will you be good enough to send this on to Mrs. W. Mendellsohn, P. O.
Box 495, Braynston, Johannesburg. I will also be very glad if you will let her know when the books arrive so that she can pick them up or else mail them on to her.

Dear Professor Carter,

I acknowledge receipt of your letter of 22 August 1968 addressed to Mr. Whyte, who is away from office and will only be returning at the end of September.

As requested I have sent off the enclosed letter to Mrs. Mendellsohn and I will notify her as soon as the books arrive.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary to Mr.
Quintin Whyte.

Dear Gwen,

Your two books arrived and one has been despatched to your friend in Bryanston. Did you intend both for her?
Please let me know.

Just back from holiday.

All good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Quintin Whyte.

Dear Sirs,

I write with further reference to your letter of 8 August 1969, about your client, Winnie Mandela. I had no recollection of any books intended for her but after searching through correspondence with Professor Carter, I found that in July 1968, she wrote to me mentioning two books which she wanted sent to a Mrs. W. Mendellsohn. No mention was made of Mrs. Mandela.

As a result of your letter of 8 August, 1969, to her, she has sent me a note and I send with this a copy of the book which I shall be glad if you will pass on to Mrs. Mandela.

Professor Carter also wishes me to say that if Mrs. Mandela wants further books or needs money, she will try to help. She will also be glad to know how she is.

Yours sincerely,

Quintin Whyte

GWENDOLEN M. CARTER

Dear Quintin:

As I remember I sent two copies of the Transkei book which is the one to which Winnie Mandela refers. If the first one wasn't delivered as seems the case, could you send her the 2nd one through these lawyers. I presume they are acting for her in her case.

Any word you can get about her through them will be much appreciated. If there are other books she would like or needs money I would certainly try to help.

Warmest best wishes, also for the work on the documents,

Cordially yours,

P. Carter
