Dear Benjie

This is just a short note to congratulate you on your book which I think is a great achievement and obviously the product of both affection and the most meticulous research.

I am enclosing my review of your book, which appeared in the Star on September 3. I was not allowed much space, but I tried to convey my admiration as best I could.

Here, in the meantime, Janet and I are getting ready for our wedding at the end of December. It would be great if you and Anne were in South Africa then, as we'd love to have you at the ceremony. As it is, we're delighted that Amanda will be there, as it would be inconceivable to tie the knot without her on hand.

With very best wishes
Matthew Kentridge
