REMEMBER JUNE 16 1976

1976 was a year of tears, a year of blood and our determined struggle.

It was a moment of truth when students stood against the heavy hand of apartheid to demand democracy.

Today we now see mass action not only by students but by residents and women. We see hundreds of people organising civic bodies, trade unions, residents organisations.

Many of these organisations have come together to form the Democratic Front – the UDF. They have united in schools, the townships, at work and in the community.

United action is now the order of the day.

Despite all efforts by the racist government to suppress us since 1976. Our spirit of our struggle has also changed. It is that today we are organised and determined.
