The Manager
Native Affairs

Sir

Here is another matter that seems to be new to me. This native is registered and particulars of Contract have not been filled in by the Registration Officer as well as the rate of pay. The native has now been discharged and claims to have not been paid according to the promise. I was under the impression that the Registration Officer explains these things even here in Durban when registering natives, and that he actually writes down. I do not know how this thing happened, I have explained to the native that under the law he is not entitled to any notice as he was on his first month but I wished to draw your attention to some of the errors done by your department.

yours faithfully
A. G. Thompson
