General disruption

By Chris M...

Several mourners were injured and some were arrested yesterday when police interrupted the funeral service of unrest victim Joseph Maches (17) at the Stillfontein cemetery near Kroonstad.

Police told a group of mourners to disperse and fired rubber bullets and tear smoke canisters into the crowd.

They arrested Mr Terror Lekota, publicity secretary of the United Democratic Front (UDF), and Mr Dennis Bloem, a UDF activist. Both men were later released.

Mr Lekota was handed a court subpoena and told to appear in the Johannesburg Magistrate's Court on March 4 or submit an affidavit to the court before that date.

● The houses of two policemen were yesterday burnt down in Duduza, near Dunnottar.

No one was injured in the incident and no arrests have been made.

Two youths were arrested after a stone-throwing incident in the township.

● Angry residents of the Ekanga'a township near Bronkhostpruit burnt down the offices of the East Rand Development Board (ERDB) and allegedly assaulted a representative of the kwaNdebele Government at the weekend.

A spokesman for the Northern Transvaal CID, Brigadier H A du Plessis, said a group of about 50 township residents entered the local offices of the ERDB and stole diesel, using it to set the building alight.
