Fellow Africans:-

You are no doubt aware of the fact that the African National Congress is today passing through the most difficult times in its history. At the same time we have made our name at the UNO to put forward our claims before the Nations of the World through its President-General Dr. A.B.Xuma. Our struggle is going from high to higher, but there is nothing we can do without money. you are therefore kindly requested to donate freely to the build Congress Fund.
