"Inene ndiginizetile okokuba siphelile kule nto - azakhi! nfo ka Kuma."

This Branch has authorised Mr Moses Motane to interview you and ask you to send us the cards on account. I am sure you could trust this Branch. Further a resolution has been passed that should there be no reply from you till the 14th of this month then this Branch will print its own cards.

This will therefore sound reactionary, but then we can not help we are forced to abide by this resolution.

We have not got even a copy of the Congress Constitution - where are we drifting to? God knows.

I must admit, Sir, our Branch is in queer street. Members are not willing to pay their subscriptions unless they are to receive cards, a fortiori with new members. We hired an Office, and now we are failing to pay for the rent. This means we have to abandon the Office, thereby meaning dissolution of the Congress in Cape Town.
