

Headlines 1983

2/1	British firms pay poverty wages Observer
3/1	Coloureds ready to debate reaction to Presidents Council
4/1	South Africa 'will still be in Namibia in 1984'
5/1	SA play dead over new cricket tour	1?	C2
	Coloureds say yess
	Warnings of a coup	18	C8
6/1	Botha welcomes support from Clooureds	9	C3
	Maputo meeting on security	9	"
	Angola 'seeks peace talks'	"	C6
7/1	Sell out claim in S Africa	1?	C1
8/1	Unita steps up Angola offensive
10/1	Investment ban is blow to Pretoria
	Move to persuade coloureds to boycott SA elections
	One short week in politics Leader Comment	12
11/1	Mozambique seeks help as SA puts on pressure
12/1	Cloud over Namibia future as Winhoek leader steps down
	After Turnhalle, the politics of the gun	15	C2
13/1	Propaganda coup for SA cricket	1
	The high price of breaking a boycott; Dan van der Vat	15
14/1	Maputo bid for oil
	Under the placid surface of British Steel in S Africa Letter
15/1	Namibia talks 'stalled by Cuban pullout call'
16/1	Bastards of Namibia Observer
21/1	South Africa 's Indians harden their opposition
23/1	The rising price of conscience Worldwatch; Sunday Times	9	C7
26/1	S Africa' reopens' talks on Namibia	6	C1
27/1	South African fugitive freed
28/1	China 'will aid Swapo'
	Simonstown investigation may lead to more arrests
	Rebels in attack on Lesotho project
	Pass key
29/1	Denial by Angolons
	All white swan song
	GEC lands £320m deal in South Africa
30/1	Uranium ban on Namibia Observer
	The man who rocked the boat Sunday Times
31/1	Parliament braced for change in S Africa	8	C1
	SA asked to halt aggression	"	"
1.2	SA blast inquiry		