My dear Sir

I was very glad to receive the Truthseeker, & always read it with pleasure. I doubt not that it is doing a good work quietly & well - & I trust that it is floated over the great difficulties, & likely to live.

I am also much obliged to you for the volume of Sermons, which I shall read with much interest -

If you rec. name (in confidence) to me those liberal clergy whom you know to be such, I dare say that I should be able to give a few additional names. At present, I know of many who have not yet for various reasons seen attendance openly to their sentiments.

But as their communications are private, I am unable to mention their names.

I am, My dear Sir,
Yours very faithfully
J. P. P.

I send you a pamphlet of mine
just published.
