Dear Jonty,

I am writing to congratulate you and all concerned on the magnificent reply you gave to the Minister after he had attacked you.

I am also writing rather belatedly to Kenneth Parker and yourself to thank you for your joint letter, informing me that I had again been appointed a Vice-President. Naturally I do not expect to endorse all actions of NUSAS, nor NUSAS to endorse all mine. I think you made a mistake in regard to South African degrees. You may be quite right to be concerned, but many people read into your resolution a wish that South African degrees should be condemned by overseas authorities. I don't think this was tactically wise.

Every best wish.

Yours sincerely,
