Appearing before a large gathering, Rev. S. M. Makgatho, renowned African political veteran and hon. life-president of the African National Congress performed his last public service in Johannesburg when he laid a foundation stone of the Johannesburg Bantu High School building a few years ago. In the top picture he is shown standing between Mr. R. V. Selope Thema and Fr. Trevor Huddleston who also laid a foundation stone at the same ceremony. The bottom picture shows a section of the crowd and the progress made with the new school on the occasion.

3,000 Africans mourn death of Rev. S. M. Makgatho

Over 3,000 Africans drawn from all walks of life, paid last respects to their former national leader, Rev. S. M. Makgatho whose funeral took place at Riverside, Pretoria, last Sunday. Mr. Makgatho died at his residence on Wednesday, May 23.

Memories of the brave and astute leadership of this renowned African political veteran were recalled by speakers at the three-hour funeral service at which, also, high tributes were paid to him before the committal.

A long procession to the cemetery was headed by pathfinders and wayfarers in uniform, as well as school children and a contingent of 29 clergymen. Rev. N. B. Tantsi officiated.

Until his death he was an honorary life-president of the African National Congress which he helped to found in 1912. Mr. Makgatho began his career as a school teacher. Destined for the sacred ministry, he was sent to England and returned three years later imbued with politics. He was president of the Transvaal Native Organisation which, in 1912, merged with the Transvaal Native Congress to form the African National Congress, Transvaal. He was elected its first provincial president.

As a leader, he played an active part in the 1917 African higher wages strike; he played a leading role in raising funds for a deputations congress sent in 1919 to interview the British Government in connection with Union Africans' grievances. He successfully fought for the abolition of passes for African

Essay contest

The results of the essay competition on the subject "How to Build a Stable Bantu Nation" will be announced in the next issue of The Bantu World. SHORTAGE OF EMPLOYMENT IN BIG CITIES LIKE JOHANNESBURG COUPLED WITH STRICT INFLUX CONTROL MEASURES HAVE BROUGHT ABOUT A THRIVING "BUSINESS" AMONG THOSE WHO ARE UNSCRUPULOUS ENOUGH TO PREY ON THE BAD LUCK OF THEIR FELLOW AFRICANS.

Bantu World representatives who interviewed numbers of people who have worked in Johannesburg for many years and who have been victims, told touching stories.

The victims are mainly Africans who come to the cities from the country and have not had much primary school education. But even those who are educated have been victims.

This is a typical story: A man comes to a place where he thinks he can get a job. He is introduced to a foreman by a "friend." The latter tells him there is a job but the usual practice is that a job seeker must pay a foreman some money in order that he should be assured of getting the job immediately.

But in some cases the promised job never materialises and trouble starts between the job seeker and the person who does the introducing to the foreman. A pathetic side to these stories is that the lost money is in many instances the last in the pockets of the poor job seeker who has no means left for supporting himself while roaming the streets trying to get work.

Another pathetic case is one which took place a few years ago. Because he had not enough money to buy a job, a young man, after waiting for something to turn up decided to go to the mines. He had hardly been there for a year when, in a mine accident, he broke his leg.

A feature of the job-selling racket is that in many cases the jobs turn out to be poor ones which have no prospects for the worker. Some people, it was revealed, paid money and landed such jobs as sweeping the streets. The Bantu World has among its records numerous examples of such breaches of the law and as the facts are ascertained they shall be given over to the authorities for action to be taken against them.

No action can be strong enough against such people who can be aptly described as parasites. The Bantu World asks readers who come across any such cases to report it to us immediately.

THEY MAY REST ASSURED THAT ONCE THE FACTS ARE ASCERTAINED THERE WILL BE PROMPT ACTION ON THE PART OF THIS NEWSPAPER TO SEE THAT THESE REACH THE PROPER AUTHORITIES.

movement for many years. He also helped to found the Transvaal African Teachers' Association which has made notable contributions to the progress of African education in this province, also improvement of the African teachers' service conditions.

Speakers at the funeral included Mr. R. V. Selope Thema, leader of the Tvl. Congress national-minded bloc and a life-long friend; Dr. A.B. Xuma, former congress national president-general; Mr. L. T. Mvabaza, Mr. Makgatho's life-long political colleague.

U.N. WANT TO FINISH OFF REDS

United Nations forces in Korea would continue advancing for as long as they could and until the Communists were "finished off," said Lieut.-General James van Fleet, Commander of the United States 8th Army, during a visit to the front.

"The job here," he said, "is to finish them off. We are going to continue pushing ahead for as long and as hard as we can."

United Nations forces, thrusting deeper into North Korea, pushed past the first natural river and mountain barriers in close pursuit of the retreating Communists.

Troops of the American 8th Army captured large quantities of equipment and so many prisoners that new stockades had to be built. A communique said that in the past seven days 5,000 Communists have been captured.

But on the east-central and west-central fronts enemy resistance began to stiffen.

United Nations troops advanced beyond the hills surrounding Hwachon and Inje, captured earlier, and mopped up remnants of Chinese units caught by the speed of the advance.

In the west, United Nations troops, including Canadians, crossed the Yongsongchon River in force and moved forward quickly in an attempt to capture the elusive Chinese who have made a more orderly withdrawal in this area than in the east.

A communique said that the mass Chinese surrenders were due to the "cumulative effect of the long and intense fire to which the Communists had been subjected since the start of their last offensive," and to lack of food and disillusionment.

Many of the Chinese who surrendered were armed with modern Russian-type equipment not seen

The women are assisted by township policemen.

Death of Chief Kekana: many at funeral

KEKANASTAD AMANDEBELE TRIBE AT HAMMANSKRAAL, PRETORIA DISTRICT, HAVE EXPERIENCED A SEVERE LOSS IN THE DEATH OF THEIR LEADER, 46-YEAR OLD CHIEF J. C. KEKANA. A CROWD ESTIMATED AT 6,000 GATHERED FOR THE FUNERAL AT LEEUWKRAAL LAST SUNDAY, AMONG THEM BEING A NUMBER OF EUROPEANS.

The late chief's subjects who came from the Reef and Pretoria, as well as other districts, attended the service which Rev. N. S. Masinga, assisted by Rev. Kgoele, conducted.

When the tribe sang a dirge at the funeral, recounting the loss suffered, memories went back to the achievements and improvements which the late chief had in his time as ruler brought about for the benefit of his people.

Not so long ago, two schools were built in this area, the late chief being the driving force towards their erection. Of great importance to the tribe was the provision, through the chief's efforts, of water supplies in this otherwise arid area.

Born in 1905, Chief Kekana was the third in the line of succession of the Kekana Amandebele dynasty.

A.N.C. RIVALS CLASH

Punches exchanged at Alexandra Rival groups in the Transvaal African National Congress provincial branch clashed at a meeting held in Alexandra Township last Sunday morning.

A number of people sustained injury, among them Mr. J. G. Mtswi, Alexandra branch chairman of the national-minded bloc in the organisation.

In a statement to a Bantu World representative Mr. E. C. Molefakgotla, Alexandra national-minded Congress branch secretary, said that trouble started shortly after a speech by Mr. Mtswi.

Mr. Mtswi, he added, had said that a group led by Mr. J. B. Marks had held this meeting without the knowledge of the branch committee.

A man sympathetic towards the Marks group then started trouble by delivering the first blow on a member of the rival group. This led to fighting.

Mr. D. W. Bopape, said that before the meeting started, a clique of the national-minded bloc created trouble in an attempt to break the meeting by obstructing the chairman of that meeting Mr. Ramailane.

"As a result, for a short time, fighting took place and a few people were injured. The national-minded bloc was led by Messrs Mtswi and O. S. Ramohano," he added.

After some uproar the meeting continued peacefully and a little while later, 10 flying squad cars arrived, but the police did not interfere.

The meeting had been called to protest against the "black spots" measure.

Resolutions taken at this meeting which Mr. Bopape says was attended by 250 Alexandra residents protested against threatened removal of Africans under the "black spots" scheme also against the Native Laws Amendment and Anti-Squatters Bills.

Deprived of his trading rights

Mr. P. G. Moguerane, a prominent citizen and member of the Western Native Township Advisory Board was recently told by the location office that he had been deprived of his trading rights in the township and that he could no longer serve as a member of the Advisory Board because he had violated the Council rules by being in arrear with his rent.

At a meeting of the township residents last week it was decided that Mr. Moguerane should allow his name to be nominated for the coming June elections of the Advisory Board and express concern was expressed that he had been deprived of the right he had enjoyed for a long time of trading among his people who had given him their whole-hearted support and confidence.

It is understood that although Mr. Moguerane has settled the arrear rent in full the Council has refused to reinstate him.

Parents attend Orlando Teachers' Meeting

A meeting called by the Orlando Teachers' Association, at which parents were invited, was held at the Donaldson Orlando Community Centre last Friday.

The aims of the meeting were explained to the gathering, inter alia, as follows: To raise funds in order to establish schools where children of school-going age should be accommodated and the schools run by the residents until the Government takes them over in due course; that compulsory education in the area should be the ultimate aim for all African children living there.

A constitution for this organisation is being considered and a further meeting will be called to hear reports on whatever progress has been made. Parents will be encouraged to give their views and advice in order to ensure the success of the project.

Among those present were Messrs J. R. Rathebe, A. A. Mathlare and P. Maleka, who was in the chair.

Many parents who were present congratulated the convenors for what was described as a great step.

The convenors asked all parents to support the work being undertaken.

Mrs. Ngakane, President of the Orlando Mothers' Association, whose organisation has a similar aim, was present and fully agreed with the ideals of the new move by the teachers. She promised her association's support.

ANC visitors discuss affairs at a Witbank gathering

The Transvaal Executive Committee, African National Congress (Nationalist Bloc), headed by the Secretary of the Province, Mr. Kumalo of Springs, and accompanied by other supporters, visited Witbank last Sunday and were met at the location gates by a big procession headed by men on horseback and horse-drawn carts.

The visitors were given a big welcome on their arrival and the executive was led into the location in an open car to the enthusiastic strains of "Morona Boloka Chaba sa Hesa." A grand gathering was waiting at the hall where a formal welcome was made to the visitors.

In the afternoon 1,000 people packed the hall to capacity and listened intently to what various speakers said about Congress affairs. There was applause whenever Mr. R. V. Selope Thema was mentioned.

On a report from the chair about the death of Mr. Makgatho, late life President of Congress, the house rose silently in his honour for five minutes. In paying tribute to him, mention was made of his life-long association with Mr. Thema and deep sympathy was evident from all present.

MANHATTAN CONTRACT

The Black Manhattan Brothers of Pimville have signed a 30 days' contract with the South African Bantu Rugby Board to give a series of shows when the board will launch a big tournament programme in Port Elizabeth from June 27 to July 28.

This dynamic cortege has been booked by an agency of a London Musical Research to tour Great Britain, France and the United States. Interviewed by a "Bantu World" representative, Mr. Nathan "Dambuzi" Mdledle said that the group had to turn down a three-month contract with a Lourenco Marques promoter on condition that the group is on a stand-by to embark on an overseas tour, and that short-term engagements are preferred in the interim.

An intriguing feature of the Manhattans, which is conclusive enough to warrant wide publicity, is that of numberless charity-shows given to institutions providing for welfare of Africans. Most notable, inter alia, is the show given to the patients of the King Edward VIII Hospital when they were in Durban.

The Manhattans are not only known and admired by Africans all over the Union, but have also sung before both European and non-African audiences. They impressed agents of London Promoters who had come to South Africa on a talent hunt.

A notable feature of the Manhattans is the originality in their style, which does not clash with their stable-mates, the Ink Spots and the Mills Brothers of America.

This group was founded in 1934 by the four "Smart Guys in White" who comprise their present numbers.

The Manhattans say that they are prepared to knit themselves into a one pattern-stitch to the end. They are four sober "Guys" Nathan "Dambuzi" Mdledle, Joseph Mokhoti, Rufus Kosa and Ronie Sehomo; all of Pimville.

ZULU CONCERT FOR 9TH

Zulu traditional music as sung by males of origin in Durban, but its home gained popularity on the R. on Saturday, June 9, the Zulu male traditional singers better known as "ombube", will give a big "blow-up" show and concert at No. 3 Polly Street Centre, Johannesburg. This group is under Mr. S. A. Dlamini and it is reported to be the only group of its kind on the Reef.

Their music is self-composed and has been improved over a number of years.

During the last Music Festival held in Johannesburg last year, this choir won a trophy. They were popular and brought some variety when they rendered traditional songs.

This group has been raising funds to help the Johannesburg

From Town and Country Stealing tools and valuable articles, thieves set principals great problem

ORLANDO.—Breaking into school premises and stealing tools as well as other valuable articles by what appears to be an organised gang of hooligans, has set Orlando school principals a great problem.

Besides the Orlando Methodist school which seems to be the gang's favourite playground, several other schools in the township have been broken into lately.

The gang would seem to specialise in woodwork instruction tools and soup tins, apparently to sell to the many ready buyers of stolen goods, who use tools in their backyard workshops.

The soup powder containers are, apparently, in great demand by shebeen queens.

The police whose hands are already full, do not appear to have much time to trace these offenders. Instead, they ask the heads of the schools broken into, to report immediately any clue or suspicion which may lead to the arrest of the culprits.—"Sebatatadi."

LOCAL COMMUNITIES FETE AFRICAN GRADUATES

As a mark of their appreciation of the success of their fellows who recently graduated after passing university degree examinations, local communities along the Reef and country have held receptions to honour the successful candidates.

● PAYNEVILLE.—A gathering of Europeans and Africans at Payneville, Springs, congratulated Mr. M. C. Mehlomakulu who graduated B.Sc. from Fort Hare this year, and Mr. J. Rhodes who passed an examination for radio-technicians.

Mr. E. J. Baker, Springs Non-European Affairs Manager, gave an explanatory talk on the administration of bursaries by the local town council, and also gave words of encouragement.

Mr. F. Habedi, headmaster of the Payneville Methodist School, gave the history of Mr. Mehlomakulu's school career from the sub-standard to Std. VI. He said that this student owed his success to keenness, politeness and good character. He further stated that the school was proud of his success and wished him success in the future.

Dr. Mary Xakana also gave an encouraging speech and urged all African youths to follow the good example of Mr. Mehlomakulu. She stated that the African people have to go forward, for if they reversed, they would perish.

Community Centre Plays Part In Important Services

An activity little known outside the Durban area is the work carried on by the David Landau Community Centre. This Centre is run by a voluntary committee which administers funds publicly subscribed. It works in close co-operation with the personnel of the Springfield Health Centre in complementary curative services by the necessary promotive health work.

Amongst the numerous activities maintained by the Centre during the past year is the Feeding scheme where food to the value of £240 per year is distributed weekly to 25 Indian babies in the Springfield Housing Scheme. The babies are selected by the staff of the Springfield Health Centre and this service is financed and run for the Community Centre by the Union of Jewish Women. The Community Centre also distributes from ten to twenty food parcels every month to cases where there is urgent need arising from causes such as sickness or unemployment. These parcels cost approximately £4 per month, and help to bridge the gap until the time when such Government grants as are available have been secured. Dried full cream milk is also distributed weekly to the needy mothers of babies under one year. These mothers are selected by the Health Centre staff and those who are able to do so, pay for the milk at cost price.

An important activity of the Community Centre is the vegetable club which was started in May 1950, with a group of eight Coloured women. Vegetables and fruit are bought in bulk at the municipal market and sold in 2s. 6d. lots to the members of the club on Saturday mornings, thus making available essential foods which could not otherwise be afforded. By the end of 1950, about 25 families were taking advantage of the club. It is hoped during this year to extend the club to embrace other areas not at present covered by its services.

Used clothing donated by people interested in the Community Centre is collected, mended and distributed in cases of special need and where the recipients are able to make a small payment for the clothing, the money received is used to defray the costs of mending.

Other amenities offered by the Community centre include a small library containing about 200 books and a number of magazines; recreation clubs, clubs for Coloured adolescent girls and boys, an African night school, Indian physical training and boxing clubs, Indian and Coloured Mothers' Groups and classes for Africans in craft-work.

It was hoped that the Union Government would subsidise the salary of a qualified social worker, but as this was not forthcoming, it was unfortunately necessary to dispense with the services of the social worker as from March 1951. The social worker was appointed in June 1950, and up to March 1951, was paid by the Centre, but owing to lack of funds they could not continue to make use of her services without outside help.

Readers' Forum Africans need real leadership to combat evils of illiteracy and superstition

Today, as never before, the African people as an ethnic group are in great need of leaders in all walks of life. They require leaders who can effectively extricate their fellow Africans from the appalling conditions brought about by ignorance, barbarism, superstition, heathenism and illiteracy.

SUCH leaders as are needed for our salvation should be from good homes, irrespective of wealth or poverty. A great many among us reflect, in some measure, the home from which we come. Home is the centre about which the whole system of life revolves. If we look at Africa as a whole, we find that to some extent, the African home is broken. There are ever so many factors which have brought about this sad state of affairs.

We should be aware of this and devise means by which it can be remedied. The educated among us should set the ball rolling; they should be the first to grapple with the problem. It is their duty to bring up good citizens who, in their own turn, will do the same.

Mothers in particular should see to it that good habits are inculcated into the minds of their growing children who will be the citizens of tomorrow. Once the children are allowed to grow in bad habits and undesirable attitudes, it will be futile later attempting to stamp out the vice.

Juvenile delinquency is now rife all over; theft, immorality and the like, would have been less pronounced or even unknown, had every home made it its duty to produce good and industrious citizens.

It is all very well to theorise on the importance of the home, or even of home life, but the great thing is for each one of us to say: "Am I doing all I can for my children? Am I setting them a good example?"

Let us put ideas into action by "doing", and not just merely saying, thinking and writing. Let us do this right away.

—Eddie L. Mukwereza, Rusapi, Southern Rhodesia.

Educated young Africans should be allowed administrative posts in tribal affairs. This is important because illiterate chiefs very often are unable to explain satisfactorily to their subjects day by day events such as they affect Africans.

There are those laws which the Government brings into being and many affect the Africans. An educated assistant to the chief would be able to tell the tribe at regular meetings all what goes on in Parliament, what laws are being passed and what the intention of such laws might be, and so forth.

This would go a long way to enlighten the ignorant masses in rural areas, as well as save time and money in lawsuits. —H. B. Kekana-Sandown

CAN any African help explain how the African National Congress is related to foreign organisations? I ask this question because of the Non-European Franchise Bill.

When the Coloureds were fighting against the Franchise Bill, we were told that we should unite in order to help fight this Bill. Our leaders would seem to forget that among all races the African is the most oppressed.

I do not want to slight the Coloureds, but this I would like to point out: when these people are among Europeans, they call us kaffirs. Of course, they are quite ignorant of the meaning of that word.

Then, when Africans and Coloureds are by themselves, the Coloureds offer us insincere friendship and seek amalgamation with us. The African National Congress must, in keeping with its name, devote attention to affairs such as they affect the African community only.

—Muziwakhe M. Maisella, Nigel

RUSTENBURG is one of the oldest towns in the Transvaal, but it has not yet reached the stage when it can be called an ideal town. A walk through Rustenburg makes you realise that the town is not very much different from the adjacent big African village known as Phokeng.

Water supplies are poor; likewise lights. Dogs are left to roam about the streets; roads are not macadamised.

The most important thing which this town lacks is a fire brigade. Recently, a bar in the town was nearly burned down. The town council should go ahead with the job of providing a fire brigade.

—Lucas Magasa, Mabieskraal

SOME people are in the habit of saying: "I am sure" in the wrong sense. Very often this is said by people who are far from being sure of what they say.

To such people I would advise the words "I think" instead. Let us be careful to mean what we say, otherwise we stand to lose respect in the eyes of others. —P. Ntuli, Magaliesburg

Machine age brings new change on home front

Numbered indeed are the days of the grinding-stone at which African women in rural areas labour hard each day to turn mealies into mealie-meal.

A British engineering firm which has been supplying the Rhodesias, Nyasaland and other Central African territories with a machine used by Africans for grinding mealies is now carrying out experiments to see if the machine can be adapted for special use in Nigeria.

If successful, the firm will have freed from the threat of starvation the territory's population of about 21,000,000.

The cause of the trouble in Nigeria was initially a social one, but it has had economic consequences.

Many West African women have been leaving home for well-paid jobs elsewhere, with the result that work at home has become neglected.

Among these home jobs is preparing root flour, which is the staple diet of the population.

Now, not enough of this flour is being made.

It is made from the cassava root which has to be peeled, grated, sifted and baked.

The head of the British firm now tells me that he hopes his machine will be able to perform these processes mechanically.

To give the firm an idea of what was required, a member of the Nigerian Legislative Council, Mr. T. A. Oduhala visited the Chelmsford premises of the firm and, assisted by an African woman, he demonstrated how the flour was made.

Several other firms have been attracted by the challenge which the problem presents, and are also trying to produce a machine to take the place of the woman in the home.

The Bible is the great book of yesterday, a greater book for today, and with even more promise for tomorrow, when man shall live in peace and brotherhood together if they will but accept its prophetic teachings.

—Senator James J. Davis

The weekly sermon:

Choose rather to be straight and honest

see our respectable exterior and are ignorant of our sinful interior

If it were possible for what is covered never to be revealed and for what is hid never to be known, hypocrites could go on all the time deceiving and enjoying the reputation to which they are by no means entitled. But, alas, no one can fool all the people all the time.

If you desire to be counted among the good people, be good through and through, for if you are a wolf in a sheep-skin, sooner or later that skin will fall off.

People have a way of behaving towards us as if they had not yet discovered our true character; and we are also so foolish as to think we are not seen, and that what we are hiding is not yet known.

It may not be known, but it will be known, no matter how we try to hide it. It will be revealed no matter how we try to cover it. Choose rather to be straight, pure and honest. —J.M.N.

Ladysmith A.F.A. XI met Newcastle D.A.F.A. XI at Ladysmith on Saturday, May 19. Mr. J. Ndimeni of Durban officiated and a big crowd witnessed this exciting match. Ladysmith emerged winners by 3-1.

Weenen County A.F.A. met Maritzburg D.A.F.A. at the new Sobantu Village Sports Ground, Maritzburg proved a better team and thus won by 3-0.

Although there was a counter match between the Maritzburg Ban'u and Johannesburg Bantu on the same day, a fairly big crowd witnessed this match. Mr. Hlongwane from Durban was referee.

RESULTS FROM KOSTER

The Zeerust school children visited Koster on May 19, for basketball and soccer matches. The Zeerust school had suffered a lamentable defeat in all games previously. The results were as follows:-

Soccer: "A" First XI 4-1; "B" Second XI 9 0. Basketball "A" 26-17 and "B" 14-6 all in favour of the home players. Koster players were: J. Seakatsie (Black cat); D. Nthubing (Pepsi-Cola); A. Radikeledi (Rock of Ages); W. Dikonopo (Corny flour); D. Kole (Across the desert); S. Monaisa (Whisky the white); P. Ramantsi (Toney Red); P. Duiker (Berry Cooper); B. Motlhampe (Black negro); J. Morobane (Uys by Usv) and G. Pule (Georgina).

A concert was held the same night. The Zeerust choir rendered music under the baton of Mr. Mkuzankwe. There were also sketches and quartets. The audience behaved badly in the concert.—A. Radikeledi.

JAJBHAY AND MOGOAI BEAT RORO AND STEIN AT B.M.S.C.

Sammy Stein, S.A. Bantu No. 2 tennis player, and Frank Roro, the Transvaal Coloured champion, were knocked out, in the third round of the B.M.S.C. Open Championships singles, on Saturday, May 26.

The "giant-killers" of the day, were Maharaj Jajbhay, and Richard Mogoai. Stein's usual coolness was, obviously, disturbed by Jajbhay's doggedness and tenacity. He pinned his younger opponent to the corners of the baseline many times, only to see the ball gliding back over the net.

Sensing the possibility of defeat, the puzzled Stein became erratic and made too many mistakes in his anxiety to save the match. He saved two match points at 4-5 and 40-15 in the final set, but the end soon came when he dropped his game at 5-6 in Jajbhay's favour.

Mogoai in Brilliant Form
Playing delightful tennis, Richard Mogoai, gave the spectators a real treat when he overpowered F. Roro, the tricky Coloured veteran, with fierce forearm and backhand drives. Yes, it was a pleasure to see the graceful young Alexandra champion at his best. If he maintains this form, he will reach the final.

Saturday's results were:
A. division: M. Jajbhay beat S.

Stein 6-4, 5-7, 7-5. R. Mogoai beat F. Roro 3-6, 6-1, 6-4.
B. division: M. Mpambela beat R. Zwakala 6-3, 7-5. E. Sebiloane beat J. May 6-2, 8-6.

Orlando High Plays Vocational Centre

(by Isaac Singwayo)

The Orlando High School first and second football teams were guests of the Vocational Training Centre, Orlando recently. The visitors were served with lunch before the games started. The second teams' game ended in a 1-1 draw.

The first teams played a fast and thrilling game, with Orlando High boys showing beautiful team work in the early part of the game. V.T.C., however, soon found their stride and showed good positional play and ball control. The lead was 3 nil in favour of V.T.C. for some time, but during the last 20 minutes Orlando High managed to score two goals to finish the game 3-2 in favour of V.T.C.

Mr. Columbus Radebe of the Non-European Affairs Recreation Department refereed both games and controlled the game magnificently.

Not just "nearly white"
—it's really white

The last quick rinse in Reckitt's Blue makes all the difference to white washing. I've used Reckitt's Blue for many years, and everybody always tells me how nice and white my washing is.

Even when white things have been rubbed and scrubbed till all the dirt is gone they sometimes still look yellowish grey. But not after they've been dipped in Reckitt's Blue. The last Blue rinse makes them white as snow. And it is so easy to do.
