Dear Madam,

I am jolly
pleased to inform you of the real difference and clear way your kindness brought to me; I am
once given the chance of going back to school.

I am very thankful
to the missive and the booklet sent to me.

Yes, it is correct that not every girl can be a nurse; neither do every girl like to become one because each and everyone's thought and interest is different from the other.

I am sorry although that I am not, I do I wish to be in Domestic service, because I know that I can never be a good servant in any kind of work unless I like that particular work.

Oh! I love to be a nurse, and nothing else do impress me except nursing.

With everlasting thanks,
I remain,
Yours, truly,
Tonica Marake.
