

23 It is unacceptable that he did not know that UDF News (which is his ultimate responsibility) was published by Transvaal for the Northern Cape, Border and Northern Transvaal

23.1 This was not raised in argument by the State on the court

23.2 This was raised in cross-examination by the State

Lebata Vol 293 p 16381 l21-16383 l16

23.3 Lebata simply stated that he did not know for a fact whether the Transvaal media committee published UDF News for other regions. Lebata was "technically responsible for the production of UDF News national". Regional issues of UDF News "are under the control of the UDF regional publicity secretaries with the media committees in those regions"

- a) Why is this exploration unacceptable?
- b) What possible motives could there be to feign ignorance
- c) The State did not suggest in cross-examination that this exploration was unacceptable

24 22.4 Lebata has never denied that the UDF
labelled the government as illegitimate.
He was not taxed in this regard with the documents referred to by the court.

Indeed some of the documents do not seem to have been referred to at all, namely C109, C114, AD2

C41(4) and J(9), A3 49 and 725
although referred to by other witness, were not put to Lebata.

24. His statement that he did not know who the funding agencies were which Saloojee visited and that Saloojee did not report back on his visit is palpably false. Finances are a vital part of any organisation. Exh F, exh T6 para 3.10

24.1 This was not raised in argument by the State or the court.

24.2 This was specifically raised in cross-examination by the State.

Lekota Vol 294 p16413 l 3 - p16417 l 4

Lekota simply stated that he could not remember whether details of the funding agencies Saloojee was to contact were discussed at the meeting. Lekota was asked where WDF got its funds. He stated that he could not give full details because fund raising was done by the treasurers. He did mention some countries from whom money was received.

24.3 It is not clear why Lekota's answer should be "palpably false". The fact that finances are a vital part of any organisation does not mean that the Publicity Secretary's lack of detailed knowledge is false.

Secondly, why should Lekota want to lie about this. At the time of his evidence there had been a legal challenge to the declaration of the WDF as an affected organisation in which details of its funding were disclosed.

25 Apropos his statement in the interview with SABC (exh 54, p78) (against imperialism and capitalism) he is asked what he wants in place of capitalism. His answer is "free enterprise". This is nonsense.

25.1 This was not raised in argument by the court or the State

25.2 This was raised in cross examination by the State.

Lebata Vol 294, p 16638 l22 - p 16639 line 10

25.3 Lebata's answer is not as nonsensical as it is made to appear. When asked what he wanted in place of capitalism he stated "we want a system that would benefit everybody". He was then asked if he could give it a name. He then stated "Well, I would say free enterprise, where you do not tie other people's hands so that they cannot compete". He elaborated on this stating that at present "we can only be at the service of others". He wanted a situation where blacks could own their own mills and farms and "compete effectively against everybody else".

25.4 It was not suggested that this answer was "nonsense". Indeed it makes perfect sense. It only becomes nonsense if one equates capitalism as it is practised in South Africa with free enterprise. As Lebata's answer indicates, such an equation is nonsense.

26. His denial that acts of defiance were discussed at the meeting of the national secretariat on 7 July 1986 is false. Both accused No 19 and Trevor Manuel admitted it. Exh C85 pp 11 and 16, exh 78 pp 15 and 18. He conceded that the next day.

26.1 This was not raised in argument by the State or the court.

26.2 This was raised in cross examination by the State.

Lekota Vol 294 p 16441 lns 124 - 16446 19
Vol 295 p 16496 lns 3-16

26.3 It is correct that Lekota acknowledged that he had wrongly stated that acts of defiance were not discussed at the meeting in question. He apologised.

26.4. The issue is whether he intended to mislead the court. There seems to be no reason for him to have done so since the NEC had rejected a defiance campaign

p 16442 lns 13-15 and 23-29

Exh H1 para 7.4

p 16446 lns 6-9

26.5. Why should he therefore want to be untruthful? He had nothing to fear since a defiance campaign had been considered and rejected by the NEC

27 The reason given why in art AL8 the preconditions for a national convention are not mentioned, namely lack of space, is flippant.

27.1 This issue (on credibility) was not raised in argument by The State or the Court.

27.2 This was raised in cross examination by The State

Lebata (Vol 294 p 16488 line 11-16691 line).

27.3 Lebata was asked why the pre conditions for a national convention were not mentioned. He explained that when one writes articles for a newspaper there are limitations on space and that he "tried to capture what I considered to be immediately important issues"

27.4 It was not suggested by the cross examiner that this answer was untrue or flippant. Anybody who has written for the newspaper will accept the correctness of Lebata's explanation

27.5 No preconditions are mentioned in AL8. On several occasions the 3 pre-conditions were clearly stated by Lebata. Indeed they were proclaimed at the launch. Why would Lebata want to conceal them on this occasion?

28. He lied about his visit to Tumahole on 15 July 1986.

a) He came from Kroonstad but stated he came from Bloemfontein.
b) He stated he had gone to visit Vuyo Dabi. It turned out he had previously said Feizile Dabi - a different person. He then adopted his evidence.

c) He told the court he could not reach the home of Dabi. His statement to the inquest said he went to Dabi's house. Also to friends he gave this version;

d) He gave this court as reason for his visit to Tumahole the sight of riot police at Ponys. His statement at the inquest was that he passed Ponys and decided to visit Dabi. This statement was drafted by his lawyer.

28.1

28.2 This was raised in cross examination by the State. Point (d) was raised by the Judge.

Lekota Vol 295 p 16500 lns 28 - 16510 l 19

28.3.1 With regard to where he had come from, he stated that he had originally come from the Cape. This he stated before he was confronted with his statement made at the inquest.

Vol 295 p 16501 lns 6-6

28.3.2 He explained that he came from the Cape, then went to Bloemfontein & then Kroonstad

Vol 295 p 16507 lns 25-30

28.3.3 He stated, before being confronted with his inquest statement that he was in the company of Papi Kganane, a union organiser with CCAWUSA in Bloemfontein. He collected Kganane when passing Bloemfontein

Vol 295 p 16507 lns 30 - 16508 l 1

28.3.4 He stated that if the lawyers had worked the details of his route he would have given it
Vol 295 p 16508 lines 2-14

28.3.5 The statement was made for the purposes of what he had seen in the police station.
They were not concerned about the route
he had taken.

Re er Vol 299 p 16915 lines 16-21

28.3.6 There is nothing inconsistent with the truth in this evidence. More importantly, what possible motive could he have for lying about the route he took. Once it is clear that he came from somewhere to Tumakole, it matters not whether he came from Kroonstad or Bloemfontein.

28.4.1 With regard to the name of the person he intended to visit, he stated, before being confronted with his ingrest statement that Hugo Dabi was at one time a member of the Tumakole Students Organisation.

Vol 298 p 16503 lines 6-7

28.4.2 When confronted with the ingrest statement he said he had confused the names of two brothers - Uysilie and Feizila

Vol 295 p 16507 lines 11-24

28.4.3 Again, what purpose is served by lying?
Once the admission is made that the person whom he visited ^{works} had connections with T.S.O then, from the state point of view, & connection with the resort in The area is made. Furthermore, it matters not which brother he intends to visit.

The distinction is immaterial
