

SYMPOSIUM INFORMATION

Welcome to the symposium on Culture and Resistance.

In order to make the Symposium run smoothly, the organizers wish to draw your attention to the following.

- Please wear your registration card at all times. This is a condition of entry. Organizers will wear a red ribbon in addition to their cards.
- The secretariat can be found in the symposium office, located on the left of the student union building.
- Only authorized cameras or tape recorders will be permitted into the symposium venues.
- For the above reason, and in the interest of public safety, all bags taken into the venues are likely to be searched. Any unattended bags will be removed from the venues.
- the right of admission is reserved.
- A press committee has been established to facilitate dealings between the press and symposium participants. The press committee can be contacted through the symposium office.
